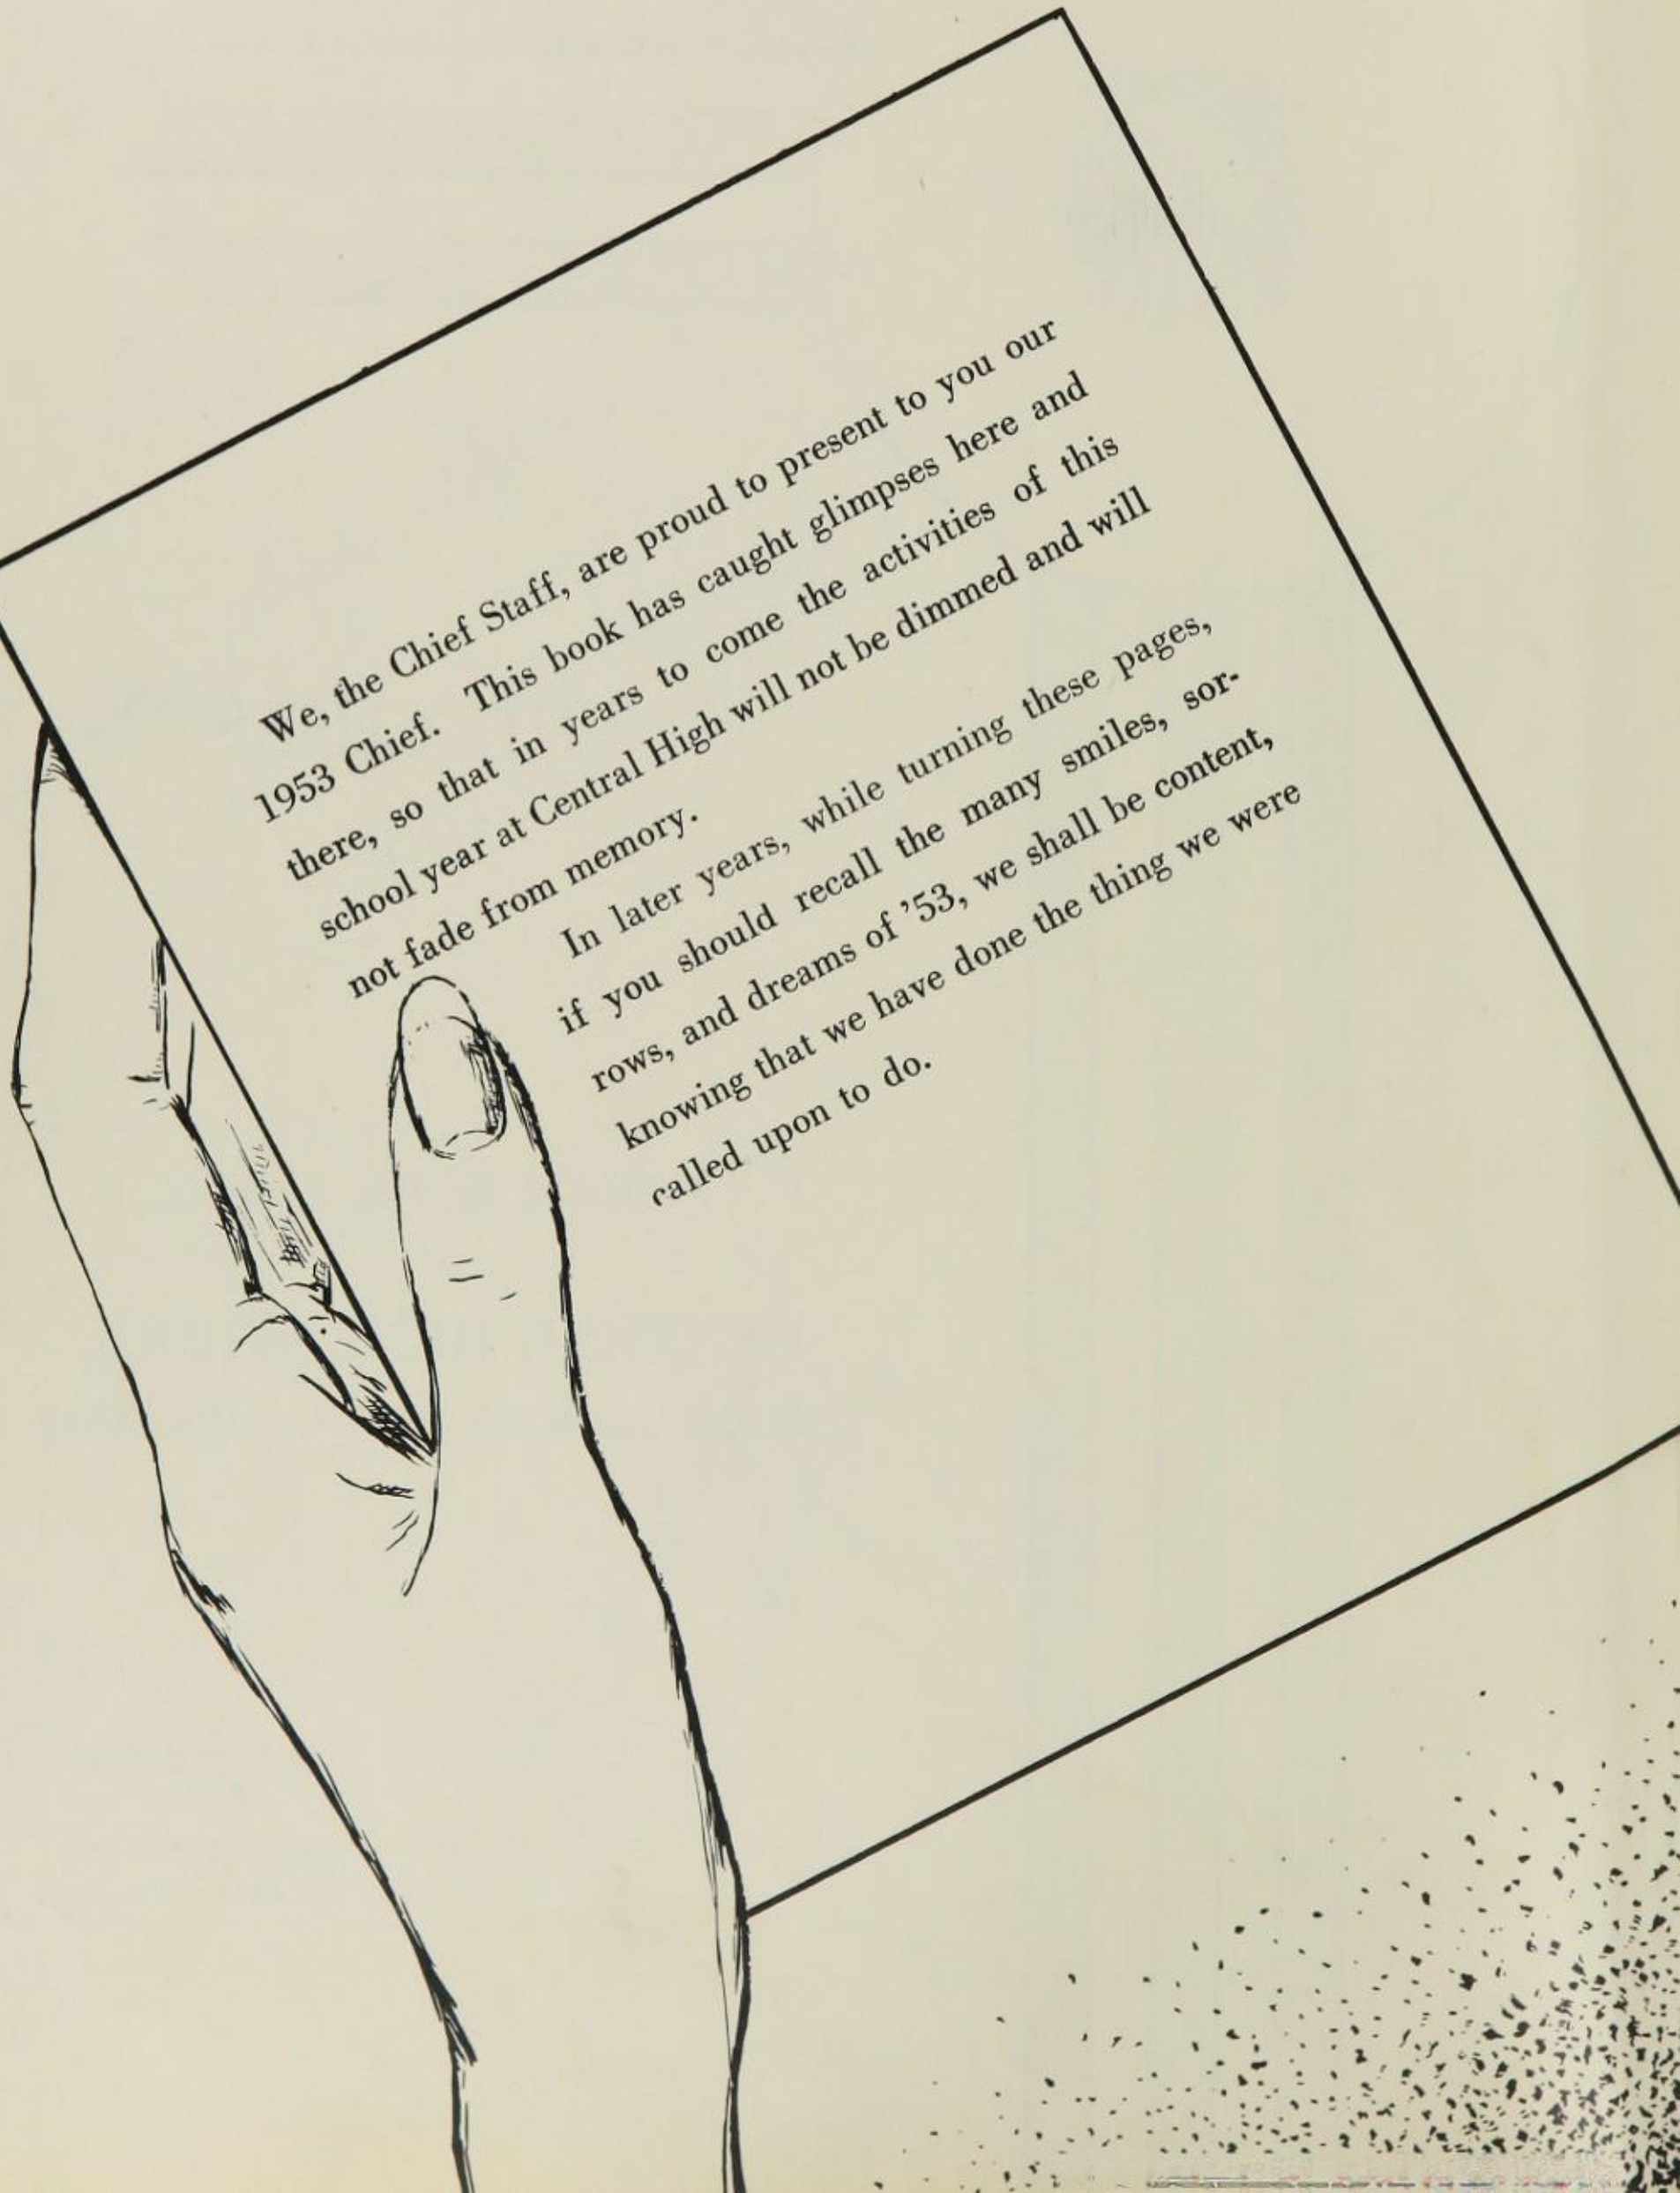
Foreword



We, the Chief Staff, are proud to present to you our 1953 Chief. This book has caught glimpses here and there, so that in years to come the activities of this school year at Central High will not be dimmed and will not fade from memory.

In later years, while turning these pages, if you should recall the many smiles, sorrows, and dreams of '53, we shall be content, knowing that we have done the thing we were called upon to do.

- To Sue -

I looked threw your year book and founded very little room, in which to write these few lines.
After many hours of looking I funed this small spot

as in your year book and in your heart
I hope that I will always fund room.

Lots of Love.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the senior class of 1953, do hereby bequeath these, our most treasured possessions, our talents and our failings, to our beloved underclassmen. May they ever strive (in vain) to follow in our footsteps.

I, Ann Ashburn, do hereby will my tremendous weight to Clarice Lawhon.

I, Shirley Baker, pass on my shy and bashful ways to my sister, Jackie.

I, Robert Baker, relinquish my cute grin and baby-blue eyes to Alan Sugg.

I, Lillie Beth Blaylock, do hereby bequeath my shorthand ability to Virginia Smith.

I, Edward Burch, yiell to Jimmy Word, my tooth-pick legs.

I, Ray Burch, pass on my love for radios to Don Galloway.

I, Bertha Burns, bequeath to Ann Choate, my quiet and unassuming manner.

I, Ann Bussell, leave Central High School to my little sister, Jean.

I, Joe Cantlon, regretfully pass on my love for Marilyn Monroe and baseball to Charles Watts.

I, Frances Carvill, hereby bequeath my interest in the U. S. Navy to Betty Tappan.

I, Bonnie Collins, leave 7th period detention study hall to David Everett.

I, John Crabtree, relinquish my dark room experiences to Bobby Raff.

I, Kenneth Davis, pass on my be-bop glasses to Dwayne Jones.

I, Roy Davis, hand over my habit of falling asleep anytime, anywhere, to Billy McElduff.

I, Walter Davis, much to my regret, leave Cherie.

I, Jimmy Davidson, bequeath my love for the fairer sex to Cyughlin Staggs.

I, Samuel Dawson, offer my love for French to my brother, Loyd.

I, Sally Jane Dickerson, leave my vocal talent to Dale Tardy.

I, James Early, hereby leave my ability to play football to Bill Ellis.

I, Solomon Feldman, pass on my attentiveness and interest in class work to Jackie Burge.

I, Doris Fielder, offer my art of running all red lights to Baker Bush.

I, Arthur Garner, leave my love for wearing a cast to Douglas Hill.

I, Marlyn Graves, yield my bursting personality to Peggy Howe.
